

Daniel D. Quick has served on the OCBA board of directors since 2011. He is a trial attorney with Dickinson Wright PLLC in Troy. Over his career, Dan has been recognized by the OCBA for his commitment and contributions, having received both the OCBA's Distinguished Service Award and the Frances R. Avadenka Community Service Award. Dan's contributions to the OCBA include having served as chair of the Circuit Court and CLE committees and having developed new programs for the OCBA consistent with its mission, including the popular "May It Please the Court" presentation, the OCCO ombudsman program, and a mock trial exercise for elementary students in which more than 1,300 children have participated.

Dan is committed to the practice of law in Michigan and nationally, and has served in leadership positions in the American Bar Association (currently as chair of the Trial Practice Committee), State Bar (including as chair of the Representative Assembly, 2015-2016), Federal Bar Association (past committee chair and executive board member), Oakland County Bar Foundation (president, 2013-2014) and Inns of Court (executive committee). Dan has been consistently ranked as a top attorney by Chambers, The Best Lawyers in America, DBusiness, IP Stars and Super Lawyers. A frequent author and speaker on issues as diverse as civil procedure, international arbitration, copyright litigation, trial practice, trade secrets, non-competes and shareholder litigation, Dan is also co-author of "Michigan Business Torts" (ICLE) and "Trade Secrets: Protection and Remedies" (BNA).