

Sarah E. Kuchon is a shareholder of Hohauser Kuchon, concentrating her practice on personal injury litigation.

Since the beginning of her career, Sarah has been a forthright advocate for our profession. She has been active in bar associations on both the state and local levels. Sarah has been an active member of the Oakland County Bar Association since 2000, and a sustaining member since 2011. She has served on the OCBA board of directors since 2015. As an active member of the OCBA, the Women Lawyers Association of Michigan and the Women's Bar Association of Oakland County, and as a fellow of the Oakland County Bar Foundation and of the Michigan State Bar Foundation, Sarah regularly attends and supports the bar's events. She has served or continues to serve on the OCBA Circuit Court, Circuit Court Case Evaluation, Membership and Diversity committees, and on the OCBA board of directors Program Committee. Sarah served as a captain in the 2015 Circuit-Probate Court Bench/Bar Conference and is co-chairing that event this year. Sarah also has served on the Representative Assembly of the State Bar of Michigan and has served as a director-at-large of the Women Lawyers Association of Michigan board of directors.

In addition to her bar activities, Sarah has been active in her community. She has served as a volunteer for the Capital Area Response Effort (CARE), an organization that responds to and provides resources to victims of domestic violence. Sarah volunteered for the Women's Survival Center for several years, receiving a volunteer award from that organization in 2004. She served several years on the board of directors of Homes for Autism, a statewide organization providing housing for autistic adults. She served as secretary of that board from 2006 to 2008. Sarah is a member of Michigan Association for Justice. She also has served as a volunteer for the Girl Scouts of Southeastern Michigan.

Sarah and her husband, Clifford, have two daughters, Hannah, age 13; and Olivia, age 7.

Sarah and her family live in Rochester Hills with their panoply of animals.
